Vandalism in the Church

I had a very helpful meeting with the School Liaison Officer PC Lesley Dann this week about the series of minor acts of vandalism that have taken place in the church. If you see or discover any vandalism please contact the Haywards Heath police.

The police will be working with all those involved to try and deal with this issue in a constructive and positive way. This will take some time but offers the best way ahead for everyone including the perpetrators.

In the meantime I ask all church members to strongly resist any attempts from within the community to tackle this problem without reference to the police (Tel no: 0845 60 70 999). Talk of petitions and other action is likely to aggravate the situation and is most unhelpful. The gentle but firm line taken by the police offers a sensible and responsible approach.

Mid Week Communion August

There will be no Thursday Communion during August. They will resume in September.

Pellingbridge Lunch

Thirty three people attended the luncheon party at Pellingbridge on 1st August. The weather was superb and the gardens were looking wonderful. Very many thanks to Catherin and Richard for welcoming us to their home and to Marian for hosting the event and to the committee of volunteers who provided such an excellent meal. £553.70 was raised in aid of family support

Garden of Remembrance

If anyone has some spare time to do a little weeding in the garden it would help to keep things in trim. Not too onerous. Please have a word with me.

Alan.
