Update on Church Finances - September 2018

As you know, our regular giving has taken a hit in the past couple of years with the passing away of several regular church members and some moving house. We estimated a deficit on our 2018 budget of £14k but I am pleased to say that with several new regular givers, and some church members increasing their giving, the anticipated deficit is now likely to be about half that amount. We are also enormously grateful to have received generous legacies from Bertie Newall and Clive Welland, which will be a great help to our ongoing church finances. Thank you to all who have responded to the request for further financial support, and if you haven't already done so, please consider reviewing your regular giving. Please also pray for the PCC, that we might be wise and careful with the generosity that we have received, and as we continue to explore ways to balance our annual budget.

Mike and Lisa
