World Book Day!

We had a great World Book Day on Thursday! The children loved thinking about books and reminding themselves of the power of reading and the difference it makes to our lives.

STAR news

This week the children loved attending choir and Fun-day Monday at the church on Monday. STAR club have started their entries for the Scaynes Hill Flower show at the end of the month and enjoyed some cooking and started thinking about spring activities like planting seeds, as well as some prep for Mothers' day.

Year 3 Worship

A brilliant World Book Day edition of our child led Collective Worship this week—well done to Year 3 for sharing such brilliant ideas and squeezing in so many values!

Quick Sticks Hockey Festival

It is always such a pleasure to take the children to sporting events outside of school. They always participate with such enthusiasm, respect and collaboration. This week was no different as some of Elm class attended the Hockey festival. Thank you, as always, to those who were able to help with transport.

Please remember to order meals 10 days prior to the week required.
Meals for W/C 23rd March must be ordered by midnight on Thursday 12th March 2026.

Star of the week

- WILLOW Lilly - For being honest and truthful
BEECH William - For always showing truthfulness when faced with a difficult challenge
ELM Freya S - Showing truthfulness even when tricky
OAK Melissa - For being an honest and truthful role model

Certificates

- WILLOW Ralphie - Showing kindness by letting others go first
BEECH James BP - For showing great creativity during our World Book Day
Arlo W - For settling in so well in Beech Class
ELM Poppy - Showing understanding in writing when creating our own limericks
James L - Always showing peace in Elm class
OAK Imogen - Showing care over her work-lining the values beautifully
Esther - Showing creativity with her World Book Day costume

The value for next week will be Respect:

Treating everyone with kindness and valuing their thoughts and feelings, so that we experience God's love for everyone and everything.
